There are three designated flex days on the 202-paraprofessional calendar. You have the option of working three additional days outside of your normal duty calendar, take personal leave, sick leave (if you have an appointment to see a healthcare provider) or substitute compensatory leave. (you must clock in and out utilizing the Timeclock Plus system anytime you work). Compensatory time and/or additional days worked prior to the first day of contract must be earned no later than the day before the designated flex day.

Please complete this form if you plan to workdays outside of your normal contracted days and return the form to your principal. If you elect not to work additional day(s), your leave bank may be charged for 8 hours of personal leave.

I plan to or have fulfilled the requirements as outlined on page 2 of this document to earn a flex day(s) for the dates listed below. The dates listed below are outside of the normal calendar days for my position with Northwest Independent School District. If the agreed upon date(s) listed below are not worked, pay may be deducted from my paycheck should I leave the district or I do not have available leave to be paid for October 12, 2020, November 23,2020, November 24,2020 and/or April 2, 2021.
