

Goal 1: Guidance Curriculum	Objective A:	Objective B:	Objective C:
Provide guidance content in a collaborative and systematic way to all students.	Provide information and knowledge from the educational, career and social environments to help form an understanding of their relationship to these areas.	Develop student's skills to identify the responsibilities and behaviors appropriate to functioning effectively in educational, career and social environments.	Students demonstrate the ability to handle the demands of educational, career, and social environments, and achieve success toward reaching their goals.
Goal 2: Responsive Services	Objective A:	Objective B:	Objective C:	Objective D:
The counselor responds to immediate needs of students.	Identify student needs where continued social/emotional development may be at risk, and intervene with appropriate resources and services.	Identify student needs where continued educational and /or career development may be at risk, and intervene with appropriate resources and services.	Provide services for peer relationships, addressing gang, pressure/involve ment, harassment issues, friendships, social adjustment.	Provide services for other needs such as financial, physical and emotional.
Goal 3: Individual Planning	Objective A:	Objective B:	Objective C:	Objective D:
With a variety of resources and partnerships, the counselor, in collaboration with parents, provide assistance as students plan, monitor, and manage their personal, social, educational, and career development.	Set challenging educational and career goals.	Analyze individual student strengths and weaknesses, assess current progress, and make decisions that reflect student goals.
Goal 4: System Support	Objective A:	Objective B:	Objective C:	Objective D:
The counselor provides system support that benefits students.	Facilitate guidance program development.	Promote and provide parent education.	Communicate with teachers, administrators, and parents.	Participate in counselor's professional development.